
Coaching for High Performance

Coaching for High Performance

Coaching for High Performance is a 5-day course delivered by Mars Training Centre in London, Barcelona, Dubai, Vienna, and Kuala Lumpur — designed for senior leaders who want to use coaching as a deliberate leadership tool, not occasional feedback.

Coaching is the most leveraged thing a senior leader does. A 30-minute coaching conversation that genuinely shifts someone's performance is worth more than a week of meetings. But coaching is also rarely taught well to senior leaders — and most leaders default either to telling, which is advice in disguise, or to listening so passively that the conversation goes nowhere.

Across five days, you will work through structured coaching models, practise live coaching with peer feedback, and develop the habits that turn coaching into a daily leadership practice rather than an occasional intervention.

What You Will Learn

By the end of this programme, you will be able to:

- Distinguish coaching from mentoring, advising, and managing — and choose the right tool for the moment.
- Apply the GROW model and other structured coaching frameworks in real conversations.
- Use active listening, powerful questions, and silence deliberately.
- Coach through resistance, underperformance, and emotional volatility.
- Spot and develop high-potential talent through coaching.
- Give feedback that actually changes behaviour.
- Build a coaching culture across the team you lead.
- Build a personal coaching practice plan for the 90 days after the course.

How You Will Benefit

You will leave with a structured coaching toolkit you can apply immediately with your team, and a Mars Certificate of Completion.

Your organisation will gain a senior leader who develops the people around them — multiplying capability rather than just adding it.
